ALL SORTS.

Regular services in the church today.

Black Wallace was in the city yesterday.

Ice cream at the Dairy Restaurant today.

There will be no ball game at Steamboat today.

Hoodlums now jeer at the Prince of Wales.

Consolidated Virginia has declared a 50-cent dividend.

It is reported that the water at Salton is increasing about an inch a day.

Eleanor Barry, formerly Mrs. Chesley, is now playing in "The Mask of Life."

Mr. Carpenter, contractor of the new sewer, says he will have a larger staff on the work soon.

John Kelly, Recorder of Storey county, and Mr. John Donahue, of Virginia, were in Carson last evening.

A new postoffice has been established at Bristol, Lincoln county Nev., with John Shuliz as postmaster.

William Blackmore has resigned his position of stage driver for W. D. Keyser. Mr. Blackmore is one of the best drivers on the Pacific Coast.

Miss Bessie Brown a guest of Miss Edith Edwards for the past month departed for San Francisco last night. She made many good friends.

Step into Frank Golden's store and inspect the display of beautiful medals to be given away by the Literary and Debating Societies on the night of their entertainment, July 15th.

A new stage line to Lake Tahoe will be put on in a few days by Oliver Roberts. He will take the King's canyon route and run six horses, giving people a more picturesque scenery and an easier grade.

The steamboat lines at the lake have compromised and the fare is now $3.00 around the lake. One boat goes one way and one goes another, leaving Tahoe City in the morning. People can now reach any point on the lake the same day.

Artesian Wells.

George Hawkins has finished boring a well for Carston Henningsen and at a depth of 70 feet he struck a supply of good, pure water that rises within four feet of the surface. Mr. Hawkins has since been boring a well for Charles Henningsen and from there will go to the Creamery to sink a well. The system for obtaining water for domestic purpose from a great depth should be more generally adopted. The surface water in the shallow, open wells is usually unhealthy, but after passing through the rock or hardpan the water supply is always of the finest quality. Mr. Hawkins thoroughly understands the well boring business and is therefore very successful. He will soon bore a well on the Pettigrew place.

Courier.

At The Theater.

Tomorrow night "The Obstinate Family" will hold a night session at the Opera House, presenting family jars with the first performance. Considerable time has been spent in rehearsing this little farce and the characters have studied their parts well. The dance after the play will also be a feature, and our theater goers ought to see the necessity of taking a few tickets for general distribution. See the cast of characters and prices of admission in another column.

Dr. Richardson, of Virginia City, has consented to sing a number of songs and Miss Finlayson, of Reno, whose soprano voice has frequently been a delight to Carson theater goers, will appear in the programme.

A BEDBUG DESTROYER.

It Makes Life Bearable Along the C. & C. Railroad.

Wherever there is sagebrush one is sure to find bedbugs, unless great precautions are taken.

Along the line of the C. & C. the bedbugs are very numerous in the wooden buildings put up near fresh clearings. They also get on the cars, and the life of a Wells Fargo agent or Postal Clerk on that road is sometimes unbearable.

Some weeks ago Mr. Burt, of this city, hit upon a new compound for paralyzing insects, and he sent a few boxes down on the C. & C.

The effect was astonishing. Whenever a box was used the infernal "varmints" either died or got away. Nothing ever discovered has such a demoralizing effect on flies, fleas and bedbugs.

The insects are so large down there that they seem like terrapins, but Burt's bedbug destroyer routs them foot, horse and drag-on.

The people who live along the line of the road are all invoking the blessings of heaven on Burt, the inventor of the new compound. They now sleep all night, enjoy good health and have no fear of the pestiferous insect that formerly tormented them almost to death.

Some of the paper lined lodging houses along the road have taken a new lease of life, and the proprietors are smiling and happy.

This compound destroys all forms of insect life, and is for sale at Heidinger's drug store.

When the Company Ain't Responsible.

The Truckee Republican says it has a kick coming against the Southern Pacific Railroad for refusing to let the editor ride a short distance on a freight train, and said editor is kicking good and hard—Times-Review.

Some years ago the editor of the APPEAL walked from the passenger car out onto a flat car and perched himself up on top of a brake.

The brakeman came along and insisted that we get off, but we declined, as there was something about the seat that was quite pleasant.

"I'll have to put you off," he said.

"Never mind him," said Superintendent Yerington, who had just come out of the passenger.

"He's riding on a free pass, and if he breaks his neck the company ain't responsible."

We were allowed to retain our seat without further trouble.

Steamboat Races.

The first meeting of the Nevada Jockey Club will take place at Steamboat today.

There will be running and trotting races, and the purses aggregate $500.

Should be Rebuilt.

It is reported that the Virginia picnics will not be held in Carson this year, as the dancing hall at Treadway's Park has been blown down, and the proprietor does not seem disposed to rebuild. If such be the case, it might be to the interests of those who are benefited by the holding of picnics here, to subscribe a sufficient amount to put the hall in shape.
